Sunseeker at North Wales Boat Show

05 Jul 2010

Running shortly after the South Wales Boat Show, Ben Sutcliffe's North Wales Boat Show will run for the third year at the Vaynol Estate, Bangor, for three days from July 30 to August 1 and see Sunseeker exhibiting.

BOAT SHOW: The North Wales Boat Show returns to the Vaynol Estate in Bangor for a third year from July 30 to August 1. And organiser Ben Sutcliffe says the show is growing with several major players attending this year's event.

Sunseeker London is in pole position and attending for the first time, said Mr Sutcliffe. The company is planning to bring a Superhawk 43, while local firms to the area are also bringing more craft with several bigger craft this year too.

Abersoch Land & Sea, the sole importers of Cranchi powerboats, is also planning on bringing a 32 footer and a selection of Bayliners, while Blue Water Marine, which has been appointed the Fairline dealers for the area, will be bringing a Targa 44 and a selection of Chaparrals.

ZMP, which this year is also sponsoring the show, will have representation at the show too.

'All this, coupled with the other 100 or so companies attending the show, will be a major boost to the event,' said Mr Sutcliffe. 'Although we're only weeks away from the show we are always pleased to hear from others who might like to attend in North Wales.'
